

Uppsala Read to Lead

Course feedback

18 people were trained on the Read to Lead in November 2018 and submitted evaluation feedback.

“It’s the best thing I’ve done since I started working as a librarian.”

Percentages from those scoring 5+ out of 7, 17-18 respondents per question

Having attended the course...

General course outcomes

What trainees said:

“The course was in a very friendly, safe atmosphere. I learned new ways of reading a text, new ways of listening and I feel more confident as a person generally.”

“Before attending I thought it sounded 'interesting'. Now I believe it can really work, because it 'worked' on me.”

“...what a wonderful experience! I never could believe I would read and speak in English for three days and feel comfortable! I hope and think I've improved my English! I often have been afraid of fail and do wrong but not here!”

“I have learned so much during these 3 days. I've gained the confidence to start my own group and gained a different way of seeing and experiencing literature and reading such an inspiration!”

“It's the best thing I've done since I started working as a librarian four years ago it will be very useful in my daily practice. It's also been very useful as a human experience.”

“I just loved it. Reading together talking and connecting while learning to read together talk and connect is actually one of the best experiences I've had.”

“I feel more comfortable with reading aloud and also leading a reading group - I haven't done this before. This was good for me.”